Presidents/Vice Presidents Report

- addressed concern regarding dogs on school grounds. School admin to review with parents. Dogs should not be on school property during school hours
- Parking lot safety still looking for any volunteers (looking for parents to volunteer to help monitor foot traffic, Nicole emailed getting the big cones
- Fun fair Committee planning/date (will look at dates with admin, looking for committee) Sarah to head up the committee, inquiring to see if gaming funds can be spent on this event
- Skating: GGPAC will run the concession, AJ inquired the possibility of sharing the ice (shared cost). It was decided no, as this could be a safety issue with the number of potential skaters on the ice

ADMINISTRATION REPORT

PAC Meeting Update;

- Technology purchases – have ordered and received the PAC iPad bundle $4000, thank you for that. With this, we have been able to top up our carts, so now we have a full primary/intermediate class set, our LST team has a set of 10 iPads.
- Our hope is to buy one more bundle this year to start filling the pods so that teachers can supplement literacy and numeracy stations with the iPads.

- Thank you for the library funds, our TL is looking forward to STEM supplies, LEGO wall and maker space materials. Huge thank you from Dana

- Seismic Upgrade Update/Portables - 6 portables will be dropped (in the gated off area of the grave field starting Nov. 22 and should all be in by Dec. 1. These will be in place to support the seismic upgrade that will be starting July 1, 2020. We have asked and received permission to use one of the portables for our Music room.

- Some dates/events coming up:

- o Scholastic Book Fair - Nov. 27-29, again an opportunity to donate a book towards the hampers
- o Christmas Hampers - We are collecting food, toiletries and new toys for students/families in need from Dec. 2-13, these hampers will go to help support some of our Greenaway families. Food will be collected Nov. 25-Dec. 6, class with most cans wins pizza party
- o WE Pancake Breakfast - Dec 10, our WE team is hosting and asking people to bring a non-perishable food item to support.
- o Christmas Sing a long – Dec 19th @ 1:00pm. Some classes will

COMMITTEE REPORTS

DPAC

- Concern from DPAC that information is not reaching parents. Information is passed to admin from DPAC and admin should be forwarding to parents. Lara will look into this as she still receives the emails
- 1st and 2nd of items only need to occur when there is a disagreement on a topic during the meetings

HOT LUNCH

- Concern raised with Hot Lunch landing on a field trip day. Coordinator asked admin to speak with staff to avoid having field trips on hot lunch days, as some students don't receive their lunch in a timely manner, parents will begin to complain
- There will be no Hot Lunch service offered in June 2020 due to the amount of field trips that take place

FUNDRAISING

- Cheque drive officially closed Friday, but will take donations all year. Nicole looking into the tax receipt option for next year.
- Art Cards - will go home this week, ordering will be available until November 29th
- Entertainment Books - Suman will officially close this tomorrow, approx 330 books sold. Will keep this fundraiser for next year
- Family photo night - 32 families signed up this year
- Holiday Gift Shop - Dec 17th and 18th - Sarah to coordinate this event

EMERGENCY RESPONSE

- Ordered 2 new ER Bags (school will pay for them as the previously ordered ones have been misplaced) waiting on ID stickers to update the ER Binders. No water or granolas bar needed to be purchased as the school board provided this.
- ER Bin - needs to be cleaned up. Will do this on Monday November 25 (Rob, Kam, Sara, Lara)
